Skills Exchange Board Layout

Instructions for Use:

Print or draw this board on a large sheet of paper or a whiteboard. Use colorful markers, stickers, or cards to fill it in during or after each workshop session. Each participant will post their name, what they taught, and what they learned. This fosters a sense of community, pride, and mutual recognition.

Skills Exchange Board

Participant Name	Skill I Shared	Skill I Learned	Feedback I Received
☐ Maria	Cooking Basics	Smartphone Tips	"I loved learning from you!"
☐ Aisha	Knitting	Budget Planning	"Great teacher, very patient!"
☐ Fatima	Digital Skills	Handmade Jewelry	"Clear and helpful instructions."
☐ Elena	Painting	Time Management	"Inspiring and creative!"
☐ Sofia	Storytelling	Language Practice	"Made me feel confident."

Visual Additions:

- Use colored stickers (☐, ☐, ☐) for participants to mark sessions they enjoyed most.
- Add photos or drawings of workshop moments around the table.
- Leave blank spaces at the bottom for reflections or group notes:
 - What did we love most today?
 - ☐ What skill would we like to explore next?

Interactive Tip:

Encourage participants to sign their names or add symbols that represent them (flowers, stars, etc.), making the board personal and vibrant.
